ARTISTS OF ART SALON: A COLLECTIVE DIALOGUE

This group exhibition is curated by Elle Schorr, the founder and organizer of Art Salons at the Armory. It features 57 respected, contemporary artists from South Florida who have been Art Salon presenters over the last three years.

The works fill three galleries at both the Armory Art Center in West Palm Beach and the newly renovated, mural covered Armory Annex Gallery in Lake Worth, where a video lounge was installed. Paintings, drawings, mixed media, sculptures, installations, and video address a breadth of social, cultural, ecological and aesthetic concerns. The work has been grouped into three themes: "The Individual", "The World", and "Beyond".

Scott Eyman's review in the Palm Beach Post|Arts and Culture|August 13, 2009 says in part:

At the Boca Museum: A summer of variety....

Elle Schorr of Lake Worth has a photo entitled Soho Reflection that is so perfectly arranged it seems like a composite, but it actually is a New York window with just the right combination of objects and reflection - including, if you look carefully, the photographer taking the picture.
